Dedication

There are over 2000 reasons why Mr. Murphy is so deserving of the dedication of the first yearbook of the millennium. Maybe it is the 2000 smiles he beams daily. Or the doughnuts he gives to his students every Friday. Or the games and activities that make keyboarding and speed writing so much fun. There are so many things we appreciate about Mr. Murphy that it is hard to pinpoint what makes him so extraordinary.

Besides his dynamic teaching style, he's funny, down to earth, hard-working, and good-natured. He takes these qualities above and beyond the normal duties of teaching. It is not unusual to see him working diligently at his desk at 6:15 in the morning and then walking briskly around the school from meeting to meeting until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. With all of this hard work, it is no wonder he was given the honor of Connecticut Business Teacher of the Year.

Besides running FBLLA and working on the School-to-Career program, he puts a lot of time into making our senior proms and winter formals special, classy affairs. And who can forget his incredible disco moves shown off at so many dances?

It is only fitting that we enthusiastically dedicate our yearbook to a man who has dedicated his time and enthusiasm to us. Thank you, Mr. Murphy, for going above and beyond our needs.

As We Go On Our Way...

As we leave our footsteps behind in dignity
we close our doors and toss our caps in the air;
We yell out in pride.

We say farewell to our friends
and to the teachers who have watched us grow and learn.
But we will never say farewell to the fondness in our hearts,
or the flame that will forever burn.

Even though we will soon go our separate ways,
down many different paths,
we'll look back at all of our laughs.
We have shared our happiness as well as our tears,
and as the years unfold,
we'll struggle to reach our goals.

"May we grow to be proud, dignified, and true,"
for our guiding light will shine us through.

Lisa Duby
Raquel Valente

"Fredrik, wake up. I think they're taking our picture."

Students

Freshman Year... I hope I don't get lost... Will my teachers be nice?... I hope I have someone to sit with at lunch...

Sophomore Year... Second year is not so bad... maybe I should join a club this year... wow, look how tall everyone has gotten...

"Welcome to second lunch."

Junior Year... What do I want to do with the rest of my life?... I have to stay focused this year... I can't wait to be a senior...

Senior Year... College, already?... I'm gonna miss my friends, but it's time for a new beginning...

Do I have something in my teeth?

A

typical Enfield High senior is one of great character.

Dignity

Pride

are always held dear to them. Because of their school pride, it is not unusual to find them dressed in green, the school color. Being the scholars that they are, they often carry a copy of The Catcher In The Rye or Of Mice and Men in their backpacks. Some of their best memories are from the New York and Boston field trips for World Civ. Their most wanted class is Psychology, that is, if all of Mr. Girard's classes are full. Because school is so important to them, jobs are not too popular in their lives. If they do have spare time, they can be found kicking around a soccer ball, or listening to Dave Matthews Band, or the Beastie Boys. They enjoy just hanging out with their friends, or cuddling up to watch the sunset. They love adventure, and enjoy movies like The Matrix, but when they want a laugh, they tune into The Simpsons. Because of their sense of humor and good taste, they like to see celebrities like Robin Williams and Julia Roberts on the big screen. Due to their busy schedules, Enfield High seniors need their carbs for energy, which would explain the long line every Wednesday for Pasta Day! When they aren't in the mood for pasta, they can be found chowin' down at Ruby Tuesday's. Strawberry smoothies or mint chocolate chip ice cream for dessert, of course. Enfield High seniors are very stylish and can often be seen shopping for classics at the Gap, or hunting for vintage finds at the local Salvation Army. At the end of a long day, sleeping becomes a top priority. These EHS seniors will surely go down in history...

"Mmm...Pasta"

A New Beginning

As we enter into the millenium as the class of 2000, we see the end of an era. We recognize this era as a time in which we have all shared tears, laughs, and many memories. But 2000 is not an end, rather a new beginning, a journey into our future. Together we have finished this chapter of our lives and together we must turn the page into the 21st century. We were the past, we are the present, and we the class of 2000 will be the future, a new beginning.

Winter Sweetheart Semi-formal

Hartford Exchange

Thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Lyons of EHS and Mr. Pezzulo of HPHS, a pupil partnership was formed. The goal of these two Latin teachers was to bring inner-city students together with suburban students to celebrate the Roman culture.

Hartford Public High School visited EHS on February 16th for a day of activities which included creating and enjoying a giant Roman Salad, learning two authentic Roman Board games (Rota, a simple game much like Tic-Tac-Toe, and Ludus Latrunculi, a strategy game much like chess), and singing to the classes. On March 15th, the Ides of March, the EHS students visited HPHS to work on the Roman Roads Project and further their Latin Friendship.

Concert/Marching Band

The Enfield High Concert/Marching Band has enjoyed a very successful year. The band performed this year at the home football games, parades, The Big E, and went to our first field show festival at Killingly High School. The instrumental Music department's trip this year is to Williamsburg, VA.

Jazz Band/Jazz Combo

The Jazz Band and Jazz Combo have been working hard this year for the many performances they have been doing. They have played at Barnes & Noble, the Enfield Showcase 2000, and have attended the Fermi and Berklee Jazz Band Competitions. Both groups will be attending the trip to Williamsburg, VA.

String Ensemble

The Enfield High String Ensemble has produced some great performances this year. The group has increased their visibility in the community through their performances at Barnes & Noble, Enfield Showcase 2000, Hometown Buffet, The Enfield Literacy Santa's Breakfast, the National Honor Society induction, and will be competing in Williamsburg, VA.

As Schools Match Wits

This was another exciting "As Schools Match Wits" season. To this date, no other school has dominated the competition like we have. In the words of John Baran, the host, "... this juggernaut is undefeatable." After crushing Chicopee High, Lenox Memorial, and Chicopee Comprehensive High School, and racking up a total of 840 pts for 3 games, Enfield High is the favorite in the playoffs.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

FBLA

Once again, we can thank Mr. Murphy and the Future Business Leaders of America for the success of our annual winter semi-formal. The club worked hard this year selling tickets and decorating for the event, along with DECA. They were also responsible for the hundreds of green foam fingers you might have seen waving in the stands at the Thanksgiving football game and the pep rally. Aside from being active and school, FBLA is also active in the community. They offered their companionship to the residents of St. Joseph's by organizing and joining them in an afternoon of BINGO, along with supplying prizes for everyone. In December, they put smiles on the faces of elementary school students by replying to their letters to Santa. None of this would have been possible without the hard-work and dedication of advisor Mr. Murphy. Good luck to all Future Leaders!

DECA

DECA is an organization of Marketing One and Two students. President Samm Bruce, Vice President Nick Unsworth, Treasurer Lisa Duby, Secretary Jessica Drabkin, Historian Eric Anderson, Reporter Jay Fountain, and Parliamentarian Lara Nyser have all worked together to make DECA a great experience for the members.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The chain link contest, homecoming dance, and candy cane sale are just some of the successful events that were held by the Student Council this year. President Amy Klement, Vice President Becky Panosky, Treasurer Becky Young, Secretary Tom Kazukynas, and alternate Jeff LaMondia have worked hard to make these events enjoyable to the student body and charitable to the organizations they donated profits to. All students are encouraged to join the student council and make a difference.

Community Service Club

The Community Service Club has been at it again this year. Starting with the Caps for Chemo drive, they successfully collected far more than their goal of 150 hats for children undergoing chemotherapy. They also organized a sock and mitten drive, in which they stuffed the socks with small toys, and brightened the holidays for many children in shelters as well as the Head Start program. During exams, Community Service teamed up with Model UN, selling coffee and hot chocolate to raise money for the removal of landmines in Bosnia. In addition, Community Service once again made the annual blood drive a success. Thanks to advisors, Mrs. Light and Ms. O'Neill, and to all dedicated members. Their generosity in the community is surely an example we can all benefit from.

The Staff

Look at them, hard at work! Robyn and Kristin sorting through pictures.

2000

This year the yearbook staff set out determined to make the millennium yearbook the best ever sent to print. Whether it was struggling to meet deadlines or making school-wide pleas for pictures, we were always trying to improve the yearbook. This year's staff was comprised of Brian Baril, Tara Hebert, Jennifer Owens, Emily Germain, Sarah Pulford, Raquel Valente, Robyn Valente, Kristin Corso, Courtney Jean, Lisa Duby, Casey Taylor, Mike Smith, Steve Romaniello and all those who donated their time to help when available. Both Miss Darin and Mrs. Simmons were more than just advisors, they were producers. And our senior editor Deanna Smith was more than just an overseer, she was the backbone of the yearbook staff. Thanks guys, your dedication motivated us to make the 2000 yearbook the best ever.

...and don't forget
Mrs. Simmons.

The Lamplighters

After the revival of the Lamplighters just a few years ago, the Drama Club has since survived many trying times, including changes in advisors. However, with newcomer advisor, Ms. Meyers, and the talented and dedicated members, the Drama Club began the new millennium with a triple bill of student-directed one-act plays. "A Storm in the Dorm", "Wurzle Flummery", and "Sorry Wrong Number" were a great success, and gave the audience a taste of what was ahead with the spring production of "The Crucible". Thanks to Ms. Meyers, Shannon Fitzsimmons, and Cassie Kubinski for their directing expertise, and "break a leg" in the future to Sammantha Bruce and Matthew Cekala (co-presidents), Kristin Corso and Mike Putzel (co-historian / publicists), and to all other seniors.

Dance Team '99-'00

The EHS Dance Team performed at halftime of the boys' and girls' basketball games. They were also spotted at Showcase 2000 and placed an outstanding third at the Wildcat Cheer and Dance Competition at Sacred Heart University. The team was comprised of 20 girls whose hard work and dedication, led by Coach Denis, made this year a success.

Cheerleading

'99-'00

Both Varsity and Junior Varsity had a successful 1999-2000 season. They cheered for a victorious football team and the girls' and boys' basketball teams. Varsity attended 3 competitions this year bringing home 3rd place at Ansonia and a Spirit Award and a 3rd place stunt group trophy from Wolcott. They attended states in March. During the summer, Varsity competed for a Nationals Bid but fell 7 points short. Junior Varsity attended the Wolcott competition and snagged a spirit award. Great job girls!

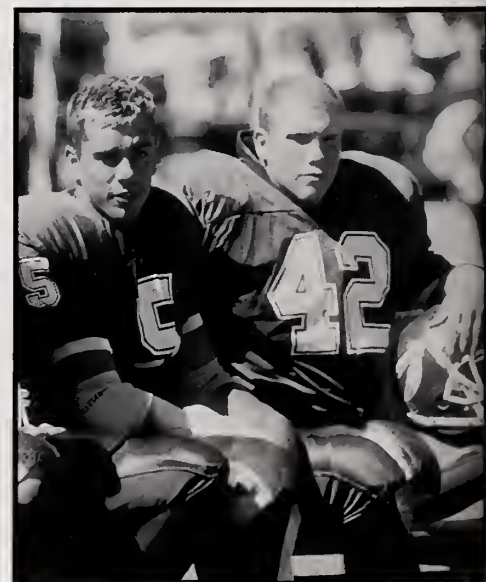

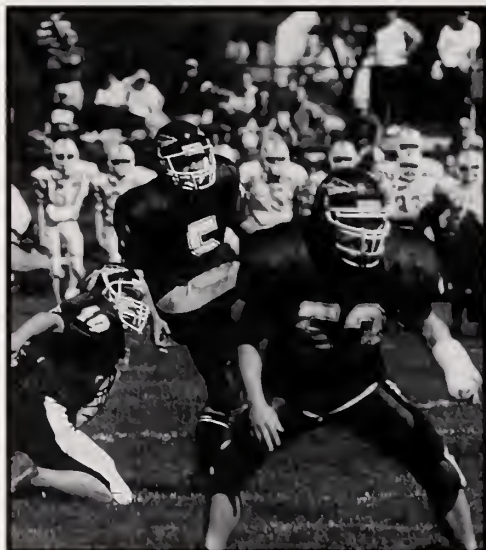

Raider Football finished off the millennium with a great season. Led by twelve seniors, the Raiders have experienced a sense of team spirit coming into the season. The defense shined and the offensive line led an excellent ground game. The '99 team's success was reflective of the hard work and effort put forth by the valuable players Anderson, Caron, Dino, Fitzgerald, Mazzone, McKinney, Unsworth, and Yurack, all of whom are seniors, and also sophomore Dave Sanchez. The unstoppable Enfield defense was a major part of the team's success.

Baseball

'99

The Enfield High baseball team, coached by Mr. Bromage, Mr. Riley, and Mr. Fazzina, ended their 1999 season with a 10-10 record. This record made them eligible for states for the first time since 1994. The standouts for the season making All-Conference were Eric Tkacz, Ryan Lawless, and Eric Boissy. The baseball team is expected to continue with another strong season this year.

Boys' Basketball

The 1999 - 2000 boys' basketball season was a look towards the future. With an improvement from last year, the varsity team won 2 games, but challenged many others. With only 3 seniors it was hard to find leadership. There are bright spots though. New coach Mike Thomas led the JV squad to a 15 - 5 record, making next year look positive. Thank you to the senior co-captains, Mark Holmes, Marcus McKinney, and Brian Mazzone for their effort and positive outlooks during the season. The team looks forward to an upswing next year.

Girls' Basketball '99-'00

The Enfield High Girls Basketball team had a phenomenal season. They ended their season with a record of 18-6. Led by seniors Barbara Machaj and Jen Drexler they made it to the state tournament for the first time in 11 years. Seniors Kristen Zimmerman, Amy Klement, and Angela Coope also helped out in their great season. Barbara Machaj and Jen Drexler were named to the All-Conference team.

Girls' Volleyball '99

Led by co-captains Kristen Zimmerman and Jamie Mulkern, the volleyball team finished their season with an 11-7 record. They fell to Jonathan Law High School in the first round of the state tournament. Kristen Zimmerman was named All-Conference and All-State.

Cross Country '99

This season the Enfield Cross Country team showed its true Raider style and finished 9 out of 14 teams for the first time in our new league NCCC. Led by junior Dan Smith, a very young team was in a year of rebuilding and all freshman showed great promise for the years to come.

Track '99

Boys' track, although small in numbers, had a successful season. The team was led by juniors Dave Orton and Brian Christoffersen. Sophomores Adam Kapchus in sprint races and Dan Smith in the lone distance races added needed points all season long.

Girls' track was led by senior Amy Pastormerlo who ended her high school career setting a new record in shot-put. A successful season with much new talent moving up shows a very promising future in Track and Field.

Boys' Swimming '99

Girls' Swimming '99

The Girls' swim team had one of its best seasons ever. The co-op team was led by seniors Danielle Griffin, Marlena Fasanelli, Emily Getman, LeeAnne Williams, and Lindsay Snowden. Hard work and determination to succeed paid off with a 9-1 winning record for the 1999 season. The team of 14 girls went up against teams three times their size and came out on top. They placed second in their league for championships and many girls went on to state championships and did very well. Their dedication to the team and hard work will lead to many more successful seasons. Good Luck!

Girls' Tennis

'99

The 1999 season was the last time Girls tennis had made it to states in years. Led by a new coach, Leo Shultz, the girls ended with a record of 10-4. First and Second singles players senior Leah Leontiades, and sophomore Stephanie Leontiades went undefeated.

Boys' Tennis '99

Senior tri-captains Sean Ryan, Neil Roberts and Chris Scioscio made strong contributions to the successful boys' tennis season (10-8). Six players qualified for the state tournament.

The NCCC may consist of smaller schools than the CCC, but in tennis, at least, some of the affluent towns will be very likely to field string teams. Our team of 2000 has no seniors, and will be challenged in the new league

Our biggest strength is a core of competitive players, who can win against most other players in one-to-one match-ups.

A friend is someone who is always there through thick and thin and rain or shine.

A friend will be there to help prepare a funeral when your cat gets run over by an 18-wheeler.

A friend will be there to tell you when there is broccoli in your teeth or something in your hair.

A friend is someone who will look after you in times of trouble and will give you a hug when you are sad.

Without friends there is no life.
Without life there are no friends.
